County Holds Out $679.

County Holds Out $679.67 withheld by the county hoard of education out of the city schools' portion of the county apportionment, on the ground that during the past five years the city schools have been oversaid, president E. M. Whitaker has requested to confer with the school altorneys and request for a report on the suit ordered instituted to secure payment of the money withhold. Attention was called to the payment to the city schools by the county schools of the state apportionment to pupils who had been transferred to the city schools from other districts in the county, but that the county apportionment to these same pupils had not been paid a motion prevailed that request be made of the county superintendent to pay whatever amounts are due the city.

Salaries of Sick Teachers.

A motion prevailed that Miss Lyda Harris be allowed aslary for nine days that she was absent because of illness of a relative. No substitute was employed during her absence.

Also Margaret Hunter, absent for several days, was allowed the difference between her regular salary and what was paid for her substitute.

Mrs. Empress Arrington, who has been ill for some time, was allowed her April sulary.

There was considerable discussion with inference to the payment of salaries to teachers absent for various reasons. Trustee W. D. Mayfield proposed a resolution that, in no case, should the absence of a teacher incur expense more than the amount of her salary for the lime absent. It was thought by some of the trustees that seals a rule might work a hardship on some teachers. It was the sautiment, however, that some rule should be adopted that would apply to all cases of absence and trustees W. D. Mayfield, S. J. Freudenthal and A. L. Hawley were appointed a committee to draft a resolution providing for a rule that will hereafter be
